

Feed Community Guidelines — Momtivation App (LeadClosers d.o.o.)

Last updated: [insert date]

1. Introduction

The Momtivation Community Feed is designed to be a positive, supportive, and motivational space for mothers. By posting or interacting within the Feed, you agree to follow these Community Guidelines. Violations may result in content removal or account restrictions.

2. Respectful Behavior

Users must:

- Treat others with kindness and respect
- Avoid insults, harassment, or aggressive behavior
- Remain supportive and constructive in comments and discussions

3. Prohibited Content

The following content is strictly prohibited:

- Hate speech, bullying, harassment
- Explicit or sexually suggestive content
- Graphic violence or harmful imagery
- Discrimination based on gender, race, religion, nationality, disability, or any protected characteristic
- Illegal activities or content promoting such activities
- Misinformation that could be harmful to users (including unsafe fitness or medical claims)
- Spam, promotional material, or advertisements
- Content infringing third-party copyrights

4. Health & Safety Notice

Users must not:

- Provide medical diagnoses
- Give unsafe fitness instructions
- Encourage dangerous behaviors

Momtivation is a wellness platform, not a medical service.

5. Image & Content Requirements

Users may post images or text that:

- Relate to fitness, wellness, motherhood, motivation, lifestyle
- Are appropriate for all audiences
- Do not include minors in compromising or unsafe situations

6. Privacy and Personal Information

Users must not share:

- Personal data of others without consent
- Sensitive private details (addresses, medical records, phone numbers)

Momtivation may remove such content for safety reasons.

7. Moderation

Momtivation reserves the right to:

- Remove content
- Limit posting privileges
- Suspend or terminate accounts
- Block or restrict content that violates these guidelines

Moderation decisions are final to protect users and the platform.

8. Reporting Violations

Users may report inappropriate content using the in-app reporting feature. Reports are reviewed by moderators to ensure community safety.

9. User Responsibility

Each user is responsible for:

- The content they post
- Ensuring photos and text comply with laws and guidelines
- Maintaining respectful communication

10. License to Display Content

By posting in the Feed, you grant Momtivation a limited license to display your content within the App until you delete it.

11. Changes to Guidelines

We may update these Guidelines periodically. Continued use of the Feed indicates acceptance of the latest version.
